*Note: according to verse 39, these powers had to be universal powers, not localized or regional entities. Each of them ruled over the then-known world.

Consider the following quotation from Edward Gibbon, the famed English historian, "The images of gold, silver, or brass, that might serve to represent the nations and their kings, were successively broken by the iron monarchy of Rome." Even secular historians recognize the historical verifiability and accuracy of this prophecy! Historians, however, can only look back and describe what has been, but God can look forward and predict what will be. The Bible can be trusted!

The Kingdom-stone, verses 44, 45

The stone that smashes the image represents what? _____
When, according to v. 44, will it strike the image? _____

The _____ coming of Jesus Christ to earth will usher in the eternal reign of the Kingdom of _____. When, precisely, will this happen? The answer is: we don't know, but we do know that we are living in the very last part—the toes—of the great metal man. Men try in vain to solidify and unite the "feet of iron and clay", but the Word of God is clear: "They Shall Not Cleave". The futile efforts of man cannot thwart the great plans and purposes of God! Just as this heavy statue would be wobbly with its feet-foundation of clay, so too we live in "wobbly" and unstable times. No man, no politician, no leader can solve the great problems that face this world. We need an external solution, and that solution is God and His marvelous coming Kingdom! How near is it? Nearer than we think!

Discover: How Ancient Babylon
Foretold the End of the World

Many are wondering when, or if, the world will ever come to an end. This question has intrigued mankind since the dawn of time. But does the Bible have anything to say about this subject? The answer is: yes, it has much to say! In fact, the Bible is the only reliable guide concerning this subject, as we will soon see. Before going into the details of one of the Bible's most incredible prophecies, let us first note the Four Essentials of Bible Prophecy.

1. To set the God of the Bible apart from other gods as the _____ God
⇒ Text: _____
2. To accurately reveal the _____ and thus create _____ in the heart of the hearer
⇒ Text: _____
3. To reveal to the hearer the _____ and _____ of his heart
⇒ Text: _____
4. To introduce the hearer to _____ and his heart's need of Him
⇒ Text: _____

These four essentials constitute the core reasons that Bible Prophecy was given. Bible Prophecy is not given merely to accommodate and satisfy mankind's curiosity about the future; Bible Prophecy serves a moral purpose, that is, to effect conversion and transformation in the heart of the hearer.

Considering one of the great prophecies of the Bible

Let us turn our attention to one of the cornerstone prophecies of the Bible. This prophecy, as we will see, perfectly embodies the Four Essentials of Bible Prophecy. This prophecy, given roughly 2,500 hundred years ago, is precisely calculated to give us hope and courage in these strange times. Most people recognize that the world is seemingly spinning out of control. Violence, immorality, war, pollution, and a host of other factors, at unprecedented degrees, are causing thinking people to wonder how much longer we can go on like this. Yet, as distressing as these times are, the Bible tells of a better day to come and gives us true hope and security even now. Let's see...

Daniel could stand with confidence before the king, because he had knelt before God! Now we turn our attention to the interpretation of this remarkable dream.
